

WARNER BOARD GIVES CONTRACT FOR NEW WING

Directors of the Annie M. Warner Hospital awarded the contract for the building of a 40' x 26' wing to the northwest corner of the original hospital building, to house an additional X-ray suite, to H. H. & T. Trins, Chambersburg construction firm. Work on the new project will begin at once and is scheduled for completion in 60 days.

The contract was awarded at the August meeting of the directors held Monday evening. In addition to the new structure, the contract calls for remodeling the first floor of the original hospital building to provide another dispensary, additional bath facilities, a waiting room and additional office areas.

The building and remodeling will cost approximately $63,000 and new X-ray equipment will cost slightly over $23,000.

Stress Expansion

In announcing the project, President Richard W. Livingston, New Oxford, and John A. Hauser, Biglerville, chairman of the new building committee, stressed that this expansion is not to be confused with the second wing that is needed to increase the patient facilities of the hospital.

In this connection they said: "Actually, this is the completion phase of the first new wing and follows our program wherein the area vacated in the original building will be immediately adapted to correct the serious overcrowding in the X-ray and dispensary departments.

"When completed and equipped we will have two complete X-ray services and two complete dispensaries, both provided with adequate bath, storage and waiting facilities. It is the necessary expansion of these departments that precipitated our building program — the first step of which was to build the first wing so as to vacate the obsolete and overcrowded wards and thereby secure the area necessary to enlarge the X-ray and dispensary departments. The construction of the new X-ray wing is necessary to give us the space needed for X-ray and also to permit the X-ray department to function while the program is in process.

Second Wing

"The proposed second wing is still in the future but not so far as we originally contemplated. This wing is needed to provide additional patient facilities and eliminate the necessity of restricting admissions, which necessarily has occurred entirely too frequently in the past year. The second wing will be built as soon as we have the money with which to do it."

While study of the building plans and the details of the contract took up most of the meeting, the directors, upon recommendation of the medical staff, approved membership on the staff of the fellowship:

Dr. Kenneth W. Ehrhart and Dr. John C. Menges, both of New Oxford; Dr. Joseph Robert John, Taneytown, and Dr. Gerald K. Doo, Gettysburg.

President Livingston expressed appreciation of the officers and directors of the hospital to all who participated in the dedication of the first new wing on August 5. Over 1,000 people visited the hospital that day.

CRASH IN SQUARE

Lorens B. Stull, Gettysburg R. 3, while driving in Lincoln Square Monday morning, struck a car driven by David L. Warrell, Baltimore. Md. Damages to the Warrell car are estimated at $75. Egypt Will Hear West's Suez Plan; Will Not Be Committed

By ARTHUR GAVSHON

LONDON (AP) — Egypt today agreed to listen to the West's proposals for international control of the Suez Canal, but Egyptian President Nasser made clear he was not committing his government to accept them.

Nasser was reported standing firm in his determination to keep sole control of the 103-mile canal in Egyptian hands.

The Egyptian ambassador delivered Nasser's reply to Prime Minister Menzies of Australia, head of the five-power group which had asked the Egyptian President to let them bring him the results of the recent 22-nation Suez conference in London.

Egyptian officials said Nasser agreed to receive the committee in Cairo but did not fix a definite date.

The sources said Nasser's note was terse and the Egyptian leader politely acknowledged the committee's request for a meeting, but with the firm understanding that this action did not commit Egypt to any agreement.

The Menzies committee was named by 18 of the 22 nations attending the London conference. It

Times Presents Four Articles On Highways

What is the new U. S. Interstate Highway System and what does it mean to Pennsylvania? What about the future of the Pennsylvania Turnpike? Dick Hoenig, of the Associated Press Harrisburg Bureau, posed those questions to the U. S. Bureau of Roads Pennsylvania headquarters, the State Highways Department, and the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission.

The answers form the basis of four articles for The Gettysburg Times, starting today.

The first article explains the Interstate System as a whole. The second details the rough outline of the system in Pennsylvania. The third deals with finances and standards for the new system. The final article deals with the future of toll roads and the controversy over the Keystone Shortway and U. S. Route 6 as an interstate highway across the state.

Husky Nurse Shakes 3 Babies To Death, Fractures Leg Of Fourth, Beats Head Of Fifth

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—Police say a 260-pound pediatric nurse has admitted shaking to death three infants because they got on her nerves or refused to take their formula.

"It was all uncontrollable," Virginia B. Jaspers, 33-year-old daughter of a county official, told the coroner. "I didn't know why I did it. Children sometimes get on my nerves."

Miss Jaspers, who is six feet tall, also admitted breaking the leg of another infant and inflicting a head injury on a fifth, said Coroner James J. Corrigan.

A private pediatric nurse for 12 years, she often lived in with the parents of the children and was not connected with a hospital.

Started In 1948

Police said the deaths dated back to 1948. Miss Jaspers was taken into custody as the result of the death Thursday of the 11-day-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Kapsnow of New Haven.

Police Chief Francis V. McManus quoted her as saying she shook the infant violently because it refused its formula.

The Kapsnows thought their child had died of natural causes. McManus said the case developed after Dr. Sterling Taylor, acting medical examiner, reported the Kapsnow child had suffered head and body injuries, apparently caused when she was "picked up and shaken violently."

After several hours of questioning, police said Miss Jaspers admitted shaking the Kapsnow child to death.

Other Tortures

Then, police said, she admitted: Causing the death in 1948 of the 7-week-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hubbard of Guilford.

Causing the death of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Malkin of New Canaan four years ago. Mrs. Malkin is a concert soprano whose stage name is Joan Brainerd.

Inflicting a head injury on the 8-week-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Saldel of New Haven.

Breaking the leg of the 3-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Schaeffer of Woodbridge in 1955.

In a jail cell, Miss Jaspers kept repeating: "How will I ever face people again?"

EDITOR AVERS LUTHER STARTED REVOLUTION

Dr. G. Elson Ruff, editor of the "Lutheran," weekly news magazine of the United Lutheran Church in America, addressed 500 members of the Lutheran Student Association of America Monday evening at 8:45 o'clock in Christ Chapel on the topic "Conceived In Liberty."

Dr. Ruff said: "Human freedom is always limited by physical necessity. We need employment to meet our economic limitations unless we are aristocrats or hoboes. The paradox is that we like to think of ourselves as free, yet we give up our freedom every year. Keep your freedom too long and refuse the limitations of nature and you accomplish nothing. As you grow older, you must surrender even the normal human opportunities to make decisions.

"Such limitation is characteristic of all things in nature, yet something about us seems not to consent to be governed by machinery. We are also children of God and freedom is from God because God is freedom. Because we are the children of God we have freedom. Freedom is an opportunity for dialogue with the Creator. We have the opportunity to give our part of the dialogue, to say 'no' to God.

"As against Christ's words that 'if you continue in My word . . . you shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free' there have been many countries which knew freedom only as brief, sporadic moments of democracy among a privileged group and then lapsed back into their old slave society. Our Revolution didn't start in 1776 but in 1521 when Luther claimed his heritage before the emperor at Worms. Revolutions are weak because they usually are empowered by material resources and after revolutions things usually settle down again in the same old groove.

"Our Declaration of Independence speaks of freedom to which the laws of God and nature entitle us. But the Declaration of Independence (Continued On Page 2)

County Youth Joins Guard Unit

Daniel Allen Gilbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel W. Gilbert, Arendtsville, and a Junior at Biglerville High School, Monday evening was sworn in as a new recruit by the local Howitzer Company of the Pennsylvania National Guard.

Lt. Donald Doersom, company commander, said the guard unit is seeking additional 17-year-old men to fill the seven vacancies in the company strength of 88 enlisted men.

He added that "the year's experience that a high school student can gain will be most helpful for him when he enters the army or navy after graduation. Or 17-year-olds can signify their intention of taking six months army duty after they graduate and thus fulfill their obligation for military service by a mere six months active duty plus service in the national guard."

Much of Monday evening's meeting at the army was devoted to preparation for a battalion inspection September 10, Lt. Doersom said.

WILLIAMS ON TRIAL

Trial of Raymond S. Williams, 44, rear of 219 S. Washington St., on a charge of burglary and larceny was scheduled to go to the jury immediately after the court resumed at 1:15 o'clock this afternoon.

The Williams case began Monday afternoon after the Benatti jury had been excused until this morning. The Benatti trial was adjourned because the court held that the arguments by the attorneys and charge by the judge could not be presented in time for the jury to begin its deliberations Monday evening.

Williams is accused of stealing "five or six chickens."

Witnesses Monday afternoon testified that two young women, 16, were driving his car. Williams was in the rear seat. Going out the waterworks road, the girls testified, Williams told the driver to stop the car. He then disappeared into the night, and returning had a bag with something in it. The girls drove back to their home, where Williams was a guest. They said he opened the bag, took out the chickens, killed the fowl and the chickens were cooked for the family. The father of the girls returned later from a fishing trip and saw the chickens being cooked. Several months later he mentioned to state police he believed the chickens were stolen and displayed to police the feathers still on his property.

Many Chickens Missing

Karl Stahl, Baltimore, who owns a farm along the Water Works Rd., where the girls claim to have stopped at Williams' command, said he had 52 chickens last fall and only 28 this spring. He visits the farm several times a week to feed the chickens, and look after the place, he said.

Stahl said Williams had been to his place and drove by it a number of times in his red convertible. The girls had previously testified that Williams owned a sedan which they had been driving.

Williams denied any knowledge of the events.

The jury hearing the Williams case includes: Mrs. Dorothy Stonaker, Fairfield; P. C. Worley, Littlestown; Mark D. Stock, New Oxford; James Weikert, Fairfield; Jules Lawrence, McSherrystown; Walter M. Kefer, Littlestown; Doris Staub, New Oxford; Willis L. Weikert, Gettysburg; J. P. Hollabaugh, Biglerville; Fred G. Cashman, New Oxford R. 1; Isaac Ripley, Aspers; Ina R. Forry, Littlestown R. 2.

This afternoon, following the Williams case, trial was scheduled to start on the cheating by false (Continued On Page 2)

BRITISH ARREST CYPRIOT MAYOR; MAKARIOS SEEMS EOKA CHIEF

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—Nicosia's Greek Cypriot mayor was placed under House arrest today while British police and troops combed his home and office. The sudden raid coincided with the end of an 11-day truce in the Cyprus uprising.

Authorities said they were investigating Dr. Themistocles Derivas, an outspoken advocate of the movement to unite Cyprus with Greece. "As a result of information received" they declined to amplify this statement.

The authorities concentrated their search at Mayor Derivas' office in the Town Hall after a room-by-room inspection of his luxurious villa failed to turn up anything incriminating.

Captured Documents

There was no indication whether the search was linked with the expiration of the EOKA truce. But it was believed it stemmed from information contained in captured EOKA documents made public by British authorities yesterday.

EOKA is the underground fighting wing of the movement to make Cyprus a political part of Greece. The British said the seized documents established that the EOKA leader, whom they have identified as former Greek army Col. George Grivas, was acting under the personal direction of exiled Archbishop Makarios.

Britain sent the Greek Orthodox prelate to the Seychelles Islands last March. Greek Cypriot leaders have demanded his return, saying he is the only man who can negotiate with Britain on a Cyprus settlement.

Derivas, secretary general of the Greek Nationalist party, has been a strong supporter of the archbishop.

WARNER BOARD GIVES CONTRACT FOR NEW WING

Directors of the Annie M. Warner Hospital awarded the contract for the building of a 40' x 26' wing to the northwest corner of the original hospital building, to house an additional X-ray suite, to Hill & Ivins, Chambersburg construction firm. Work on the new project will begin at once and is scheduled for completion in 60 days.

The contract was awarded at the August meeting of the directors held Monday evening. In addition to the new structure, the contract calls for remodeling the first floor of the original hospital building to provide another dispensary, additional bath facilities, a waiting room and additional office areas.

The building and remodeling will cost approximately $63,000 and new X-ray equipment will cost slightly over $23,000.

Stress Expansion
In announcing the project, President Richard W. Livingston, New Oxford, and John A. Hauser, Biglerville, chairman of the new building committee, stressed that this expansion is not to be confused with the second wing that is needed to increase the patient facilities of the hospital.

In this connection they said: "Actually, this is the completion phase of the first new wing and follows our program wherein the area vacated in the original building will be immediately adapted to correct the serious overcrowding in the X-ray and dispensary departments.

"When completed and equipped we will have two complete X-ray services and two complete dispensaries, both provided with adequate bath, storage and waiting facilities. It is the necessary expansion of these departments that precipitated our building program—the first step of which was to build the first wing so as to vacate the obsolete and overcrowded wards and thereby secure the area necessary to enlarge the X-ray and dispensary departments. The construction of the new X-ray wing is necessary to give us the space needed for X-ray and also to permit the X-ray department to function while the program is in process.

Second Wing
"The proposed second wing is still in the future but not so far as we originally contemplated. This wing is needed to provide additional patient facilities and eliminate the necessity of restricting admissions, which necessarily has occurred entirely too frequently in the past year. The second wing will be built as soon as we have the money with which to do it."

While study of the building plans and the details of the contract took up most of the meeting, the directors, upon recommendation of the medical staff, approved membership on the staff of the following:

Dr. Kenneth W. Ehrhart and Dr. John C. Menges, both of New Oxford; Dr. Joseph Robert John, Taneytown, and Dr. Gerald K. Doo, Gettysburg.

President Livingston expressed appreciation of the officers and directors of the hospital to all who participated in the dedication of the first new wing on August 5. Over 1,000 people visited the hospital that day.

FLOWER DISPLAY AREA IMPROVED AT SO. MT. FAIR

The committee in charge of the flower exhibits at the South Mountain Fair, the largest committee connected with the fair, is putting the finishing touches on the Flower Building by adding a new center dividing structure to allow greater space and better vision for patrons. Much of the work of designing and building the new divider was done by Capt. W. D. Paris, York Springs.

Entries for exhibition will be accepted on Tuesday, Sept. 4, from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Special classes and artistic arrangement classes will be received at separate tables for convenience of exhibitors. Uniform containers for the special classes will be provided, but containers for artistic arrangements and compositions will be furnished by the exhibitor.

Several changes in the specimen classes have been made. In Division 2, Class 9, Pansies, the number of blooms has been reduced from 11 to 6; Division 2, Class 6, Strawflowers, is limited to helichrysum only, other everlasting types not applying. The house plant division has been discontinued.

Husky Nurse Shakes 3 Babies To Death, Fractures Leg Of Fourth, Beats Head Of Fifth

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—Police say a 260-pound pediatric nurse has admitted shaking to death three infants because they got on her nerves or refused to take their formula.

"It was all uncontrollable," Virginia B. Jaspers, 33-year-old daughter of a county official, told the coroner. "I didn't know why I did it. Children sometimes get on my nerves."

Miss Jaspers, who is six feet tall, also admitted breaking the leg of another infant and inflicting a head injury on a fifth, said Coroner James J. Corrigan.

Started In 1948
Police said the deaths dated back to 1948. Miss Jaspers was taken into custody as the result of the death Thursday of the 11-day-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Kapsnow of New Haven.

Police Chief Francis V. McManus quoted her as saying she shook the infant violently because it refused its formula.

The Kapsnows thought their child had died of natural causes. McManus said the case developed after Dr. Sterling Taylor, acting medical examiner, reported the Kapsnow child had suffered head and body injuries, apparently caused when she was "picked up and shaken violently."

After several hours of questioning, police said Miss Jaspers admitted shaking the Kapsnow child to death.

Other Tortures
Then, police said, she admitted: Causing the death in 1948 of the 7-week-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hubbard of Guilford.

Causing the death of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Malkin of New Canaan four years ago. Mrs. Malkin is a concert soprano whose stage name is Joan Brainerd.

Inflicting a head injury on the 8-week-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Saidel of New Haven.

Breaking the leg of the 3-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Schaeffer of Woodbridge in 1955.

In a jail cell, Miss Jaspers kept repeating: "How will I ever face people again?"

ASSIGN SOME PAGEANT ROLES MONDAY NIGHT
A representative group reported for roles in the Sesquicentennial pageant at a casting meeting held at the court house Monday evening.

Assignments were given to various individuals and family groups as pioneers, early settlers, etc., and arrangements were made for some of the groups to begin rehearsals Wednesday evening at the American Legion Home, Baltimore St.

Additional members are needed for the cast, especially men, it was reported, and persons wishing parts are asked to notify the director, Mrs. E. J. Killalea.

Auxiliary To Meet
At the same time further plans for the parade and staging of the pageant were outlined at a meeting at the engine house of the committees in charge. Donald W. McSherry, fire chief and parade chairman, reported plans to send invitations to various bands, marching units, organizations, etc. A general appeal was made for floats and costumed groups for the parade to be held September 15 at 2 p.m.

Donald Staub, chairman of the properties and supplies committee, outlined plans for construction of the stage and other equipment and lighting for the pageant.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Gettysburg Fire Department has agreed to serve as the committee to secure small properties for the pageant including such items as chairs, cradles, etc. Sesqui Chairman William G. Weaver said.

TRAIN AND 3 CARS IN CRASH
A freight car was struck when three autos collided Monday evening at 6:45 o'clock at the railroad crossing at the Bethlehem Quarry, two miles north of Hanover on the Cross Keys Rd.

State police said a flagman walked into the road to stop traffic to permit a freight train to cross.

Lewis Martz, 18, New Oxford R. 1, stopped at the crossing when he saw the flagman's signal.

Robert Nyberg, 48, Garrison, Md., advertising salesman, also headed south, according to police was unable to stop his car in time and after the vehicle ran into the rear of the Martz car, it swung off the road and struck the freight car.

Moments later, police said, Charles H. Beckley, York R. 1, also headed south, arrived on the scene, applied his brakes, skidded, missed the Martz car, but his vehicle crashed into the Nyberg machine.

No one was injured and damage to the three cars totaled $500.

SENTENCE DEFERRED
Sentencing was postponed by the York County Court Monday until October 19 on a guilty plea to drunken driving charges by Pauline Zumbum, New Oxford.

Many Chickens Missing
Karl Stahl, Baltimore, who owns a farm along the Water Works Rd., where the girls claim to have stopped at Williams' command, said he had 52 chickens last fall and only 28 this spring. He visits the farm several times a week to feed the chickens, and look after the place, he said.

Stahl said Williams had been to his place and drove by it a number of times in his red convertible. The girls had previously testified that Williams owned a sedan which they had been driving.

Williams denied any knowledge of the events.

The jury hearing the Williams case includes: Mrs. Dorothy Slonaker, Fairfield; P. C. Worley, Littlestown; Mark D. Stock, New Oxford; James Weikert, Fairfield; Biglerville R. 1; Harry Thomas, East Berlin; Mrs. William Wilkinson, Biglerville R. 1; Mrs. Wayne Black and infant son, Benderville; Wanda Flesman, York Springs R. 2; Mrs. Samuel Beck, Littlestown.

British Arrest Cypriot Mayor; Makarios Seems EOKA Chief

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—Nicosia's Greek Cypriot mayor was placed under House arrest today while British police and troops combed his home and office. The sudden raid coincided with the end of an 11-day truce in the Cyprus uprising.

Authorities said they were investigating Dr. Themistocles Dervis, an outspoken advocate of the movement to unite Cyprus with Greece, "as a result of information received." They declined to amplify this statement.

The authorities concentrated their search at Mayor Dervis' office in the Town Hall after a room-by-room inspection of his luxurious villa failed to turn up anything incriminating.

Captured Documents
There was no indication whether the search was linked with the expiration of the EOKA truce. But it was believed it stemmed from information contained in captured EOKA documents made public by British authorities yesterday.

EOKA is the underground fighting wing of the movement to make Cyprus a political part of Greece. The British said the seized documents established that the EOKA leader, whom they have identified as former Greek army Col. George Grivas, was acting under the personal direction of exiled Archbishop Makarios.

Britain sent the Greek Orthodox prelate to the Seychelle Islands last March. Greek Cypriot leaders have demanded his return, saying he is the only man who can negotiate with Britain on a Cyprus settlement.

Dervis, secretary general of the Greek Nationalist party, has been a strong supporter of the archbishop.

BENATTI FOUND GUILTY 2 COUNTS BY JURY TODAY

Edward R. Benatti, 22, Philadelphia, was found guilty by an Adams County jury this morning of burglary and larceny in the theft of three paintings from the home of the Misses Lillie and Mary Sneeringer, Hanover R. 4.

After deliberating an hour and five minutes the jury, headed by Fred Williams as foreman, handed up at 11:15 o'clock this morning a verdict reading, "Guilty on both counts. The jury recommends leniency."

Benatti, a few minutes before the jury returned with its verdict on the burglary and larceny charge, had signed a plea of nolo contendere to the morals charge brought against him by Pennsylvania State Police after his arrest on the other counts.

Remanded To Jail
He and a 17-year-old grandniece of the Misses Sneeringer were alleged to have stolen the three paintings, painted by a sister of the Misses Sneeringer, who is a retired nun. One of the pictures was of the Madonna and Child.

Benatti, whose brunette wife was in court throughout the trial, was charged on a morals count involving the blond grandniece of the Sneeringers.

Judge W. C. Sheely revoked the $2,000 bail on which Benatti had been free during the trial, and remanded him into custody of the sheriff immediately after the jury returned its verdict.

Williams On Trial
Trial of Raymond S. Williams, 44, rear of 219 S. Washington St., on a charge of burglary and larceny was scheduled to go to the jury immediately after the court resumed at 1:15 o'clock this afternoon.

The Williams case began Monday afternoon after the Benatti jury had been excused until this morning. The Benatti trial was adjourned because the court held that the arguments by the attorneys and charge by the judge could not be presented in time for the jury to begin its deliberations Monday evening.

Williams is accused of stealing "five or six chickens."

Witnesses Monday afternoon testified that two young women, one 16, were driving his car. Williams was in the rear seat. Going out the waterworks road, the girls testified, Williams told the driver to stop the car. He then disappeared into the night, and returning had a bag with something in it. The girls drove back to their home, where Williams was a guest. They said he opened the bag, took out the chickens, killed the fowl and the chickens were cooked for the family. The father of the girls returned later from a fishing trip and saw the chickens being cooked. Several months later he mentioned to state police he believed the chickens were stolen and displayed to police the feathers still on his property.

Many Chickens Missing
Karl Stahl, Baltimore, who owns a farm along the Water Works Rd., where the girls claim to have stopped at Williams' command, said he had 52 chickens last fall and only 28 this spring. He visits the farm several times a week to feed the chickens, and look after the place, he said.

Stahl said Williams had been to his place and drove by it a number of times in his red convertible. The girls had previously testified that Williams owned a sedan which they had been driving.

SAYS RADIATION AIDS LEUKEMIA

BOSTON (AP)—Radiation treatments "tailored" more carefully than a new suit of clothes can boost human chances against chronic leukemia, a medical team reported today.

Leukemia is a form of cancer of the blood, marked by an excess of white blood cells. The chronic form does not progress as fast as acute leukemia.

The measured doses of radiation promise to double the survival time in chronic leukemia, compared with using a generalized average dose of radiation, said Dr. E. E. Osgood, A. J. Seaman and R. D. Koler of Portland, Ore.

Dr. Osgood spoke at the opening of the Congress of the International Society of Hematology, attended by hundreds of blood specialists from 40 nations.

In 11 years under Coach Bobby Dodd, Georgia Tech has won 91 football games, lost 27 and tied 3.

MAHONEY GETS SENATOR RACE IN MARYLAND

BALTIMORE (AP) — George P. Mahoney, who narrowly lost the Democratic primary last May, was tagged last night to replace the ailing Millard E. Tydings as the party's candidate for the U.S. Senate.

The State Democratic Committee, by a 97-55 vote, selected the 54-year-old Baltimore contractor over Mrs. Eleanor Tydings, wife of the former senator and daughter of former U.S. Ambassador to Russia Joseph E. Davies.

Early today, Mahoney said he would revive the bitter 1950 campaign between Tydings and Republican Sen. John Marshall Butler as an issue. "I'm going to take out after Butler throughout this state and make sure the people know about the fraud perpetrated on Tydings six years ago," he said.

Sought Vengeance
Committee members were urged by Mrs. Tydings' supporters to name her as she might carry on her husband's vengeance campaign against Butler.

Tydings, who served 24 straight years in the Senate, was ousted by Butler in a bitter campaign for which Butler's side was repaid by a Senate elections subcommittee. It said "back-street" tactics were used.

Singled out for criticism was a fake photograph — a composite — purporting to show Tydings in amiable conversation with Earl Browder, Communist party chief.

Claims Moral Right
After Tydings withdrew Aug. 19, Mahoney immediately claimed a "moral right" to the nomination. Anti-Mahoney forces, led by Mayor Thomas D'Alesandro of Baltimore, swung their support to National Committeeman Michael J. Birmingham.

It was an odd political switch, for Birmingham had been Mahoney's primary campaign manager.

Without warning, Birmingham abandoned his claim to the nomination last Wednesday night. At a Saturday, D'Alesandro urged that Mrs. Tydings be drafted. Sunday she announced her intention to seek the appointment.

Last night, in defeat, she said she would support Mahoney.

MAN WANDERS; LOST IN WOODS

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP) — A 58-year-old Scranton businessman is back home today after wandering aimlessly for 50 hours in dense woods near Clifton Beach, some 20 miles east of here.

Abe Myers, general manager of the Sunnyside Dress Co., Inc., Scranton, was in good condition although covered with scratches from the thick undergrowth. He was found yesterday.

He was picking huckleberries in the woods Saturday when he tripped on a log and fell, Myers said, adding that the impact knocked him senseless for about two hours.

When he regained consciousness he had lost his direction and wandered aimlessly with no sleep and only berries for food.

Col. Robert Angstrom and Lt. Robert Ironside of the Army Signal Corps Depot, Tobyhanna, found the missing man while traveling an old logging trail in a jeep. The Army officers were part of a huge searching party mobilized to hunt for the missing man.

LEADER HOPES FOR BOOST IN REGISTRATION

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP) — Gov. Leader looks for an increased Democratic voter registration as the first step toward victory in the coming national election.

The governor particularly urged Pennsylvania Democratic workers last night to strive toward increasing the Democratic registration beyond that of the Republican in the state.

Leader made the appeal in an address before a "kickoff dinner" in Williamsport formally opening the presidential campaign for the Democratic party in Pennsylvania. Leader also promised "the Democratic state administration intends to have something done about the small dairy farmer at the state and federal level."

He said he will appoint two representatives of the small dairy farmer to "state their cases" when the Federal Marketing Administration holds hearings in Pennsylvania. No date for the hearings has been set.

"Economic Depression"
He told some 2,500 attending the dinner that the small dairy farmer is "in the midst of a severe economic depression in the marketing of their milk" and blamed it on the party system of the Republican federal administration.

Leader called on party members to "take the Democratic program to the people."

He offered this as an answer to what he said was the activities of "an unfriendly press."

"The press had attempted to shoulder the sales tax on the Leader administration whereas it was actually the result of the Duff deficit and the Taylor tax," he said.

He referred to U.S. Sen. James H. Duff, former Pennsylvania governor, and Sen. M. Harvey Taylor, Dauphin County, president pro tempore of the State Senate.

He described the Republican-controlled Senate of the past session as "old Harvey Taylor and his 26 iron men."

"We finally had to take their (Republicans) program because of the hospital and school financial situation," he said.

The reference was to the state's 3 per cent retail sales tax.

national speech and hearing honorary fraternity.

The county board elected Miss Patricia Washburn as a teacher's helper in the Adams County Day Care Training Center at salary of $2,600 a year. Miss Washburn taught last year in the Devereaux School for retarded children at Devon.

An $87,110 budget for special classes was adopted by the board, but there was little anticipation that the amount will be spent during the year. New state laws provide that school districts are to provide special education for all handicapped children. It also provides that the districts can apparently save money by operating special classes through the county board. Special classes are already in existence in Littlestown, Fairfield and Biglerville and will start this year at York Springs.

Riegle To Resign

The $87,110 budget set up would permit those classes — if the districts wish it — plus all other classes that might be set up in those and other schools, to be carried on by the county board. Members of the board, however, said they did not expect all of the money to be expended because they anticipate that many districts will continue to operate their own special classes, and there are not sufficient school rooms or teachers available for the number of classes that would be necessary to meet the state requirements for special classes.

No action was taken on replacement of H. Edgar Riegle as county superintendent of schools. Riegle was elected Gettysburg superintendent of schools earlier this month. He told the county board that he plans to assume his new duties as of January 1. His resignation will be presented as of that date and the county board will then have until February 1 if it wishes to appoint an acting superintendent and recommend that the state Department of Public Instruction name the "acting" superintendent as county superintendent.

Ready For New School

Riegle reported all in readiness, "as far as we can go" on plans for construction of a new high school in the Bernadine Joint School district area — between York Springs and East Berlin. No further action can be taken, he said, until Reading Twp. is released from Conewago Joint School system, of which it is a member. Abbotstown, also a member of the Conewago Joint district, has signed with the Lower Adams Jointure and may send some high school students there this year. The joining of Abbotstown with Lower Adams is dependent upon its release from Conewago Jointure. Reports at the meeting indicated that all districts in Conewago Jointure, with the exception of East Berlin, favor dissolution of that system. But East Berlin must agree before the jointure can be dissolved. The county board agreed to enter into transportation contracts for children to the Day Care Training Center. Twenty-eight are enrolled for the special school so far, 10 more than last year.

IKE AND MAMIE ARE FLYING EAST

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP) — President Eisenhower took off at 8:37 a.m. PDT today for Washington, to resume government business conferences and to map second term campaign strategy, ending his 4½-day California vacation.

The President took off on the Columbine III from the nearby Monterey Naval air field for the 9-hour flight on a cold, gray morning.

The visibility was 5 miles and there was a scattered 400-foot ceiling.

Both Eisenhower and his wife were smiling as they boarded the plane. He wore a brown suit. Mamie wore a black dress, small velvet hat and a black and white overcoat on which was pinned a huge orchid.

The tanned and relaxed President was accompanied on the flight by three bridge-playing friends — Ellis Slater, president of Frankfort Distilleries; Frank Willard, New York investment broker; and William E. Robinson of New York, president of Coca-Cola.

Planners Hope Dream Network Will Solve All Highway Woes

Editors: Pennsylvania has more than 4½ million licensed drivers. Very few are aware of what the new "dream" highways authorized by the 1956 Congress means to them. This is the first of four articles explaining the most important part of the new road network, called the National System of Interstate and Defense Highways. The first article deals with the interstate system in general.

By DICK HOENIG
HARRISBURG (AP) — When the golden age of highway construction dawned last June 29 the shiniest beam of all was labeled "The Interstate System."

Miles and miles of connected, glass-smooth ribbons of divided roadway slicing across the nation in every direction and free from intersecting crossroads and traffic lights — that is the projected interstate system.

Designed for super safety and convenience, the network is aimed at making long distance driving a pleasure and possibly cheaper.

Long Range Plan
The system is not expected to produce 100 per cent immediate relief from any particular highway congestion. It is a long-range plan and will take 13-15 years to complete. Some of the work is already under way. A small part, about 15 per cent, is actually completed; but the peak of the work won't be approached for five years.

Over these proposed 41,000 miles of interstate freeways — less than 7 per cent of the principal mileage in the United States — some 20 per cent of the country's traffic is expected to travel. The system will link 200 major cities or 90 per cent of those over 50,000 population. In Pennsylvania a state employee from Scranton will be able to drive to the state capital in Harrisburg on a new superhighway. A Meadville man will be able to move his family to the Pocono mountain resort area 300 miles away over another interstate expressway.

Strategic Network
For years highway planners have had this idea for a major artery network throughout the nation. In 1941 the defense highway act authorized a "strategic network of highways" designating the principal routes of military importance and directed the federal works administrator to designate existing or proposed routes.

The basis for the present system was established in 1944. Then on June 29 Congress approved the 1956 federal-aid highway and revenue act putting into the law books the largest public works program ever undertaken by the United States. Rated top importance in the overall 33-billion dollar road program was the interstate system, more formally known as the "National System of Interstate and Defense Highways."

Prompt Completion
"One of the most important objectives of this act," the law reads, "is the prompt completion of the interstate system. Insofar as possible in consonance with this objective, existing highways located on an interstate route shall be used to the extent that such use is practicable, suitable and feasible."

Almost 25 billion dollars of the total 33 billion was set aside to build this one superhighway network with the federal government paying 90 per cent of the cost and states bearing the remaining 10 per cent. In the past federal aid was based on a 50-50 formula and that percentage was retained for three other phases of the federal-aid highway program. These other parts are directed at the improvement of the primary

SQUIRES WILL HAVE STRONG FORWARD LINE

A strong veteran forward wall with a new backfield appears likely for the Delone Catholic High School football squad for the coming season which gets underway Friday evening, September 7, at Hanover.

Coach Alex Bell has five vets for the line including Joe Jenkins, guard, Tom Smith, tackle, and Joe Points, end, on the right side, with Jerry Elise, tackle, and Phil Staub, end, on the opposite side.

Bill Wiernan, sub end last season, and Richie Hemler, defensive safety man, are among the candidates. John Gastley, a Gettysburg youngster who is expected to make a strong bid for a regular job, recently suffered a spiked hand in drills and has been temporarily sidelined.

Rough Schedule
The Squires open a rugged 10-game schedule with their time-honored rivals — the Hanover Night Hawks — September 7 after which they come here to help the Gettysburg High Warriors inaugurate their home campaign on September 14.

The complete Delone schedule: September 7, Hanover, away; 14, Gettysburg, away; 21, Chambersburg, away; 28, Lancaster Catholic, away; October 5, Westminster, home; 14, York Catholic, away; 19, Lebanon Catholic, home; 27, Scotland, away; November 4, Harrisburg Catholic, home; 9, Littlestown, away.

highways of the country, generally those connecting county seats and leading to interstate roads the secondary system, of the "farm to market roads" in rural areas, and that part of the secondary system in urban areas.

Public Hearings
Several innovations for highway building were written into the 1956 law. One provides for public hearings on any road, interstate or not, which bypasses or goes through any city, town or village. Before federal approval can be granted, the transcript of the hearing affording interested parties a chance to protest, must be submitted to the commissioner of public roads.

For the first time all road-building under the new program will be done at the local prevailing wage rates. Wages paid for construction work must be approved by the secretary of labor.

The interstate network is being constructed on the limited access concept. To the driver this means no traffic lights. It also means that he will cross either over or under any intersecting roads.

Limited access also means you can

Fish Commission Asks $5 Fee To Finance Improved Program

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania's 700,000 anglers were under notice today that the State Fish Commission intends to seek legislative approval for a 100 per cent increase in fishing license fees in 1958.

The eight-member agency voted unanimously yesterday to ask the 1957 General Assembly to authorize boosting the resident license fee for fishing from $2.50 to $7.50 a year.

The proposed action, according to Commission President R. Stanley Smith would bring in about $12 million dollars a year in revenue—twice as much as at present.

Long-Range Plans
In listing a group of proposed long-range improvements in the commission activities, Smith said the increase is necessary to "push the kind of fish-management program the people are entitled to."

Copies of the fee increase proposal will be sent to members of the General Assembly and those seeking office in that body, heads of sportsmen's and conservation organizations and all other persons interested in the matter.

Legislative action is necessary to change the license fee which has been in effect since 1954.

Changed In 1958
However, since the licenses are issued for a year period beginning in January, the earliest the increase could become effective would be January, 1958 because the next Assembly session will not convene until January of 1957.

"We are convinced," Smith said, "that the state needs a well-considered and long-range program of:

"1. Additional usable sites for fishing lakes.

"2. More and better public access to open fishing waters.

"3. Stream surveys to bring and keep our knowledge of Pennsylvania waters up to date.

"4. Practical research to produce better strains of fish, better diets for our hatchery fish, better control of fish disease, and more knowledge of fish in general.

"5. Lake studies and management to produce better for the fishermen.

Better Training
"6. Better schooling and training of wardens, hatchery employees and others.

"7. Maintaining and improving our hatcheries.

"8. Acquiring and using modern equipment, for both safety and efficiency.

"9. Improving cooperation with other agencies.

"10. More efficient enforcement of the motor boat laws, in order to catch up with that fast growing sport and the hazards involved."

The commission set the 1957 bass season for Jan. 1 to March 14. It will reopen June 15 and run through March 14, 1958.

The current season opened July 1 and runs through Nov. 30.

The trout season will open as usual on April 15 and run through Sept. 2, 1957. This year the trout season was scheduled to close July 31 but was extended to Sept. 15.

The catch limits in some cases were slightly changed. Smith said the group also discussed possible use of a special trout stamp as a means of raising additional funds.

get on or off the highway only at certain points. Advantages of such a roadway are increased safety and preservation of the traffic capacity of the road.

More important to the motorist, limited access highways mean that he will have to leave the road to stop for food, gasoline or any other type of purchase. However, commercial establishments can be located adjacent to the right of way.

Charles D. Curtiss, commissioner of the U. S. Public Roads Bureau, pictures private business on interstate roads as situated "about at the same points" found on the present Pennsylvania and New Jersey Turnpikes.

Should Save Money
What will the 1975 car owner save through extensive use of this modern system as well as the other improved roads he will have? One estimate has been made by Andrew J. Sordani, president of the American Automobile Assn.

He guesses it will cost the average passenger car owner $16 —20 a year more in federal and state gasoline and tire taxes for the new highway program. But the AAA head says the owner "may expect" to save one cent a mile or $100 a year in car operating costs for an annual net cost of about $80 through the new road systems.

Tomorrow's article tells how Pennsylvania will share in the interstate system program.

About 14 per cent of U.S. spending units (families and single people) had incomes of $4,000 to $5,000 a year in 1955.

GIANTS SIGN BONUS HURLER

NEW YORK (AP)—Mike Francis McCormick, star 18-year-old left-handed pitcher from Bakersfield, Calif., was signed today by the New York Giants to a bonus contract, reputedly for more than $50,000.

McCormick, who stands 6 feet 2 and weighs 185, pitched two no-hitters in winning 12 games and losing none at Makell High School in Arcadia, Calif., this spring. He added three more no-hitters to the list in American Legion junior baseball competition, and then in the Hearst newspapers sando tournament struck out all 15 boys who faced him.

Horace Stoneham, president of the Giants, in announcing the signing, said McCormick would report to the team when it returns to the Polo Grounds here on Friday. As a bonus player, McCormick must remain with the Giants for two years before he can be farmed out.

Every major league club was after the young Californian. Walter (Dutch) Reuther handled the signing for the Giants.

IBC Is Hopeful Of Title Battle Soon

CHICAGO (AP) — Officials of the International Boxing Club expect to iron out details today for a middleweight title fight between champion Ray Robinson and Challenger Gene Fullmer.

Truman Gibson, secretary of the IBC, said Robinson would be contacted in New York today after learning that Sugar Ray had capitulated to IBC President Jim Norris.

Robinson two weeks ago said he was through with Norris and the IBC because he couldn't get enough money from them but yesterday announced "I'm ready, willing and able to defend my title on Sept. 25 or a later date at Yankee Stadium."

Gibson and Norris returned to Chicago last night after giving Robinson a deadline to meet "our offer."

Robinson had demanded 47½ per cent of the net plus 60 per cent of all money received from theater or home television with a guarantee of $60,000.

Girl Friend Buries Boy's Courting Gift

LYNNFIELD, Mass. (AP) — Steve Grady gave his girl some jewelry —and that's where trouble began. Steve Grady is only 6 years old. His girl friend, identified only as Mary, is 4.

Steve's brother, Paul, 5, informed his mother yesterday "Steve gave Mary a lot of jewelry."

The mother checked her jewel box and found two rings, two bracelets and a necklace, which she valued at $75, were missing. She told her husband, Police Sgt. Norman Grady, and he initiated a search.

Steve admitted he gave his girl friend the jewelry. Mary said she buried most of it, but can't remember where.

MAHONEY GETS SENATOR RACE IN MARYLAND

BALTIMORE (AP) — George P. Mahoney, who narrowly lost the Democratic primary last May, was tagged last night to replace the ailing Millard E. Tydings as the party's candidate for the U.S. Senate.

The State Democratic Committee, by a 97-55 vote, selected the 54-year-old Baltimore contractor over Mrs. Eleanor Tydings, wife of the former senator and daughter of former U.S. Ambassador to Russia Joseph E. Davies.

Early today, Mahoney said he would revive the bitter 1950 campaign between Tydings and Republican Sen. John Marshall Butler as an issue. "I'm going to take out after Butler throughout this state and make sure the people know about the fraud perpetrated on Tydings six years ago," he said.

Sought Vengeance

Committee members were urged by Mrs. Tydings' supporters to name her so she might carry on her husband's vengeance campaign against Butler.

Tydings, who served 24 straight years in the Senate, was ousted by Butler in a bitter campaign for which Butler's side was reprimanded by a Senate elections subcommittee. It said "back-street type" tactics were used.

Singled out for criticism was a fake photograph — a composite — purporting to show Tydings in amiable conversation with Earl Browder, Communist party chief.

Claims Moral Right

After Tydings withdrew Aug. 19 Mahoney immediately claimed a "moral right" to the nomination.

Anti-Mahoney forces, led by Mayor Thomas D'Alessandro of Baltimore, swung their support to National Committeeman Michael J. Birmingham.

It was an odd political switch, for Birmingham had been Mahoney's primary campaign manager.

Without warning, Birmingham abandoned his claim to the nomination last Wednesday night. At a Saturday, D'Alessandro urged that Mrs. Tydings be drafted. Sunday she announced her intention to seek the appointment.

Last night, in defeat, she said she would support Mahoney.

LEADER HOPES FOR BOOST IN REGISTRATION

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—Gov. Leader looks for an increased Democratic voter registration as the first step toward victory in the coming national election.

The governor particularly urged Pennsylvania Democratic workers last night to strive toward increasing the Democratic registration beyond that of the Republican in the state.

Leader made the appeal in an address before a "kickoff dinner" in Williamsport formally opening the presidential campaign for the Democratic party in Pennsylvania.

Leader also promised "the Democratic state administration intends to have something done about the small dairy farmer at the state and federal level."

He said he will appoint two representatives of the small dairy farmer to "state their cases" when the Federal Marketing Administration holds hearings in Pennsylvania. No date for the hearings has been set.

"Economic Depression"

He told some 2,500 attending the dinner that the small dairy farmer is "in the midst of a severe economic depression in the marketing of their milk" and blamed it on the party system of the Republican federal administration.

Leader called on party members to "take the Democratic program to the people."

He offered this as an answer to what he said was the activities of "an unfriendly press."

"The press had attempted to shoulder the sales tax on the Leader administration whereas it was actually the result of the Duff deficit and the Taylor tax," he said.

He referred to U.S. Sen. James H. Duff, former Pennsylvania governor, and Sen. M. Harvey Taylor, Dauphin County, president pro tempore of the State Senate.

He described the Republican-controlled Senate of the past session as "old Harvey Taylor and his 28 iron men."

"We finally had to take their (Republicans) program because of the hospital and school financial situation," he said.

The reference was to the state's 3 per cent retail sales tax.

Today's Talk

BLACK MOODS
Are you given to moods, often the very black ones, at times? Recently the entire sky all about me became suddenly black, almost all light shut out. It looked like the approach of a big storm. But somehow, and as surprising as they came, those clouds all left and the sun came out as though to give a promise and the hope for a Sunshine mood.

Nature is forever reproducing itself in us. We have these dark, black moods, but mostly they are of short duration and can be made meaningless. These black moods, however, are not very pleasant for us who have them, or for those who face them with us. In all nature there are moods of every sort. The forest, the sea, the mountains and valleys have them. The very black ones are rare and of short duration.

Nature does not cling to one mood for long. We should note that and follow her example.

And the good and inspiring moods far outweigh the unpleasant and unhappy ones. I have watched for hours the moods of the sea. They are very pronounced. Winslow Homer painted these moods in all their glory. They will always live as great masterpieces. Waugh also did great paintings of the sea in its many moods, and the late W. R. MacAskill preserved them in his matchless photographs of the sea.

You can't help but feel there are many moods in the floating and changing of the clouds of the sky on summer's day. An advertiser of a popular product has used the phrase "Floating on a cloud." What a multitude of moods there are on a sunny-cloudy day! Changing every moment. Each time a picture of beauty. It is no wonder great artists have taken to the interpretations of these clouds. Very few, however, have anything to do with the black moods. The others mean most to us.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Friendliness of Birds"

BODY AND SOUL
Body and Soul I fancied were talking
As under the stars one clear night they went walking.
"I," said the Body, "am what men admire.
Strength for their tasks is the thing they desire.
I win their battles; 'tis I who am foremost.
I am the one that all mortals admire most."

"Body," said Soul, "you are loved by all mortals.
You sit at their fables and pass through their portals.
You are the house and the visible being.
You are the thing which they think they are seeing.
But I am the spirit. I make you or break you —
Lost is your pride if I ever forsake you."

"Body," said Soul, "you are merely the dwelling.
I am the kernel and you are the shell.
As a house that is empty men pass by and are frightened.
So you would be were your eyes not kept lighted.
I am the essence of all men call your way.
The lamp at your window, the smile at your doorway."

"'Tis true that men cherish you; true they admire you.
True that in broadcloth and silk they attire you.
But when age breaks you, you cannot be mended;
Back to the dust you return when life's ended.
Body, though strong you are, brilliant and clever,
Death shall destroy you, but I live forever."

BENSON WANTS FARMERS TAKEN OFF SALE BLOCK

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Benson contends the "serious" problems of the farmer can be solved only by sound thinking and sound action and not by placing them "on the political auction block."

He told about 5,000 persons at the annual Poultry Festival of the Pennsylvania State Poultry Federation:

"At the very heart of the agricultural issue is whether or farms are to continue to be operated by free men" or under more government subsidy.

"American agriculture is neither Republican nor Democrat," he said Saturday night. "Farm people cannot, and must not, be thought of as a group who may be put on the political auction block. Their problems cannot be solved that way."

The secretary's speech highlighted the festival which was held in conjunction with the fourth 8th annual Pennsylvania Dutch Days at Hershey Park which closed Sunday with concerts by Pennsylvania Dutch bands.

LEBANON, Pa. (AP)—A Lickdale hotel operator yesterday posted $1,000 bond for his wife on a charge of shooting him in the arm. Glenn Warren, 37, posted the bond pending a hearing for his wife, Dora, 35, before Justice of the Peace N. Stanford Miller.

Trooper Joseph Eversly said the shooting occurred during a family argument at the couple's hotel on Rt. 72, a mile north of nearby Lickdale. State police filed a charge of aggravated assault and battery against Mrs. Warren.

Warren was hit in the upper left arm by a bullet from a .22 calibre rifle.

NIXON IS READY FOR BIG DRIVE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Nixon came back Monday from the bedside of his seriously ill father and prepared to plunge into his campaign for re-election.

After an overnight flight from California, Nixon arrived here with his wife and their two daughters, Patricia, 10, and Julie, 8.

He said he would rest this morning and go to his office this afternoon to confer with officials of the Republican National Committee on campaign plans.

Nixon said on leaving Los Angeles last night that his father, Frank A. Nixon, 77, ill in Whittier, Calif., "was in good spirits although he was upset to see us go because he's especially fond of the two girls."

The vice president said he would return to California immediately if his father should take a turn for the worse. In any event, Nixon said, he expects to return within two weeks.

High Court Upholds Poor Home Reduction

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Pennsylvania Supreme Court has upheld a Carbon County Court order directing the state to reduce the number of occupants of the poor home in Laurytown by 30 to 40.

The order was issued by Carbon County Judge James C. McCready, and was opposed by officials of Luzerne, Carbon and Columbia counties. The home has residents of all three counties.

The court had been asked by Carbon County Dist. Atty. Carl A. Niehoff to quash a petition for a writ of prohibition against Judge McCready's order. The high court rejected Niehoff's request and then upheld the order. The commissioners of the three counties had sought the writ of prohibition.

The high court decision was made in a per curiam order last Thursday but was not docketed until yesterday.

DANIEL FACING VOTE CHALLENGE

DALLAS (AP)—U. S. Sen. Price Daniel, who likes quiet and peace and can't seem to find them, was in one of the biggest brawls in Texas political history today.

This calm, natural man held a razor-thin lead over Austin attorney Ralph Yarborough for the Democratic nomination as Texas governor — equal to election in Texas.

Prospects were that he would be fighting for his political life in many of Texas 254 counties where contests or challenges of a handful of ballots in each might melt his lead away.

Yarborough workers have indicated they plan to challenge all questionable ballots. A change of one per cent of the 1,400,000 ballots in the Austin attorney's favor would defeat Daniel easily.

Daniel, who is 46, once said he'd rather be governor of Texas than President. He will resign his Senate seat if he wins the Democratic nomination and the general election Nov. 6. At any rate, he has said, he does not plan to be a candidate to succeed himself in the Senate.

CYPRIOIS RAP BRITISH CHARGE

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—Britain's new indictment of exiled Archbishop Makarios as an active leader of Cyprus terrorism was termed "an unfortunate and inappropriate act" Monday by a Greek Cypriot newspaper.

British Colonial Secretary Alan Lennox-Boyd charged that Makarios, spiritual leader of the 400,000 Greek Cypriots, was "the personal director" of the 16-month bomb-and-bulletins uprising and was "actually involved in the choice of individual victims for murder."

In Nicosia, the Greek-language weekly Alithia — Truth — replied that the charges "can only further complicate the situation." It said the Cyprus problem can be solved "only by forgetting the past and through sincerity and goodwill from both sides."

"If this move is meant to lower the archbishop's prestige," said the newspaper, "it is an unwise and vain attempt."

Lennox-Boyd distributed translations of documents he said were captured a week ago in Cyprus. He told a news conference in London they proved beyond doubt that EOKA, the Greek Cypriot underground fighting to unite the Mediterranean island with Greece, took its orders from Makarios.

A total of 145 persons, about one-third of them Britons, have been killed in the EOKA campaign. The archbishop, who has been negotiating with the British for Cypriot independence, was deported to the Seychelle Islands in the Indian Ocean last March for refusing to denounce the violence.

Cesspool Gases Kills Three Men

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Deadly gases in a cesspool took the lives of three men at a motor court in nearby Kuhnsville yesterday.

Sylvester Fehnel, 60, of Haafsville, near Kuhnsville, fell into the cesspool while attempting to repair a clogged drain. Edward Shannon, 26, resident manager of Tourin, Inc., and Michael Harneschne, 37, died in a vain effort to rescue Fehnel.

Police said the gas apparently overcame Fehnel as he removed the cover of the pool. Shannon, calling for help, tumbled in as he tried to reach Fehnel, and Harneschne followed. The latter was a cook in the restaurant which adjoined the motor court.

Firemen wearing gas masks recovered the bodies.

'CARE OF AGED POSES PROBLEM'

HAMBURG, Pa. (AP)—Social neglect and the lack of a planned physical rehabilitation program for elderly people pose a major American problem, says a New York nursing home director.

Jay Hoffman, speaking yesterday at the opening of a three-day convention of the Assn. of Self-Supporting Institutions of the General Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists, said many people "grossly neglect their elderly parents leaving thousands of persons in the declining years of their life unhappy and miserable."

The meeting is being held at nearby Blue Mountain Academy. Over 150 delegates from 18 Middle Atlantic states are attending, representing some 60 church institutions.

Wesley Amundsen, general chairman of the convention and secretary of the association, urged the delegates to work toward building schools and other institutions in rural areas.

Other speakers at the opening sessions were T. Edgar Unruh of Reading, president of the East Pennsylvania Conference of Adventist Churches in Pennsylvania.

Dodgers Defeat Milwaukee 6-3 To Edge Nearer Top Of League; Cleveland Dumps Nationals 5-2

By ED WILKS

The Associated Press
Roy Campanella, Brooklyn's big catcher who wins the most-valuable-player award every other season and then slumps in between, is following the same old script again. But with one ad lib from his bat, the Dodgers are surer than ever they'll retain the National League pennant.

Campy, at 35, the highest paid Dodger ever, won the NL's MVP award in 1951, '53 and '55. But he was a "bust" in '50, '52 and '54. And at the moment, true to the "even-year-jinx," he's wobbling along with a .220 bat average with a scrawny 57 runs batted in.

Things have been so bad for the big guy this season, Milwaukee decided to walk Jackie Robinson — loading the bases with two out — to get to Campy with the score tied 3-3 in the eighth inning yesterday. The Braves were speculating in percentages. Campy hadn't hit in his last 11 at bats.

Bats In Three Runs
He now has one hit in his last 12 at bats — a lined single that scored three runs and lifted the Dodgers into a 6-3 victory and whittled the Braves' first-place edge to two games once more.

It was the only game scheduled in the NL, leaving the Braves two full games ahead of third place Cincinnati.

In the only American League game scheduled, Cleveland bopped Washington 5-2 as Bob Lemon hung up his 198th lifetime victory.

Campanella's single salvaged a split in the two-game set for the second place Dodgers and gave them a victory in their last game of the season in Milwaukee for a 4-7 record at County Stadium. It was there that the Dodgers had naded the 1953 and 1955 pennants with victories on their last visit of the season.

"At Home" Clashes
This one carried no such guarantee. But after coming back from a 3-0 deficit, the Dodgers are sure they've got the flag in the sack. The Braves are still the team to beat, but now just one game back in the "lost" column the Brooklynians feel they can do it — helped along by an "at home" schedule to end the season. They figured they needed "only six or seven" victories on their current 11-game finale in the West this season and now they've won five of the first seven, with only four games left at Chicago against the last place Cubs.

Joe Adcock's 33rd home run and his 11th against Brooklyn and Bobby Thomson's 18th built the 3-0 Milwaukee lead against 20-game winner Don Newcombe, who has finished only one of his last four pitching starts, left for a pinch-hitter because of a tummy ache in the sixth when Duke Snider hit his 35th homer, a two-run shot, off Gene Conley to start the Brook revival.

Tied In Seventh
Robinson's double and a single by Sandy Amoros tied it in the seventh. Then came the eighth and Conley's fifth straight losing start against the champs since May 12, 1955. Don Bessent's one-hit relief over the last four frames brought the young right-hander his first 1956 victory.

It was Conley's hesitancy on Carl Furillo's chopper in the eighth that may have been responsible for his eighth defeat in 15 decisions. With runners on third and first, Conley seemed to be considering a doubleplay after fielding Furillo's bouncer, but instead retired Junior Gilliam in a rundown between third and home. Then came the pass to Robbie — who looked like the Jackie of old scoring from first on Campy's single when the outfield throw went to second.

Clouts Two Homers
Chico Carrasquel drove in three runs with two homers for the Tribe and scored another after doubling. Rocky Colavito also homered, his 17th, for the second place Indians, once more within seven games of the New York Yankees. Lemon, winning his 17th of the season, gave eight hits and walked home an unearned run in the eighth. The big right-hander now is even with Milwaukee's Warren Spahn in the race to see who'll be the first to join the 200-victory circle. But the Braves' southpaw is scheduled to go again tonight shooting for his 199th opposing Pittsburgh.

TIGERS SEARCH FOR FIGHTING FIELD LEADER

DETROIT (AP)—Fred Knorr, who becomes president of the Detroit Tigers Oct. 1, says the manager of the 1937 Tigers "will be a fiery, active guy who will inspire the players and get out there on the field and fight for them."

The Detroit radio executive said, however, that "there is no inside track" as far as managerial candidates are concerned. He did not rule out the possibility the present manager, Bucky Harris, would be back for another season. As many as seven possible successors to Harris have been mentioned publicly.

The names mentioned prominently so far as a possible successor to Harris include:

Paul Richards, general manager and team manager of the Baltimore Orioles.

Leo Durocher, former New York Giant manager.

Charlie Dressen, manager of the Washington Nationals.

Charlie Grimm, released earlier in the season as manager of the Milwaukee Braves.

Phil Rizzuto, long-time New York Yankee shortstop given his unconditional release last week.

Billy Huchcock, the Tigers' third base coach, and Jack Tighe, first base and bullpen coach.

Legion Tourney Goes Into Second Round

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Harrisburg, Narberth, Philipsburg and Allentown Lentz post moved into second day competition in the 31st annual American Legion State Baseball Tournament today after posting opening round victories yesterday.

Lentz of Dist. 4 defeated Weedville (12) by 6-3. Philipsburg (9) topped New Berlin (6) 4-2. Narberth (2) whipped Republic (10) 3-2 and Harrisburg (5) crushed New Castle (11) 13-4.

LAKE ONTARIO'S ANNUAL SWIM

TORONTO (AP)—Lake Ontario's icy cold water and strong currents today oast back the challenge of 10 regular competitors and five "wildcaters," unauthorized entries, in the $27,000 32-mile swim marathon.

Tom Park, a 32-year-old Canadian-born husky from Marineland, Calif., was the last regular to yield to the lake. He was pulled into his pilot boat at 3:52 a.m. EDT after covering about 18 miles in just under 10 hours. The starting point was Niagara-On-The-Lake, Ont.

Park and Cliff Lumsdon from Toronto, had been expected to battle all the way for the chief share of the prize money. Lumsdon, a five-time winner of the Canadian National Exhibition's Lake Ontario swim was literally knocked out of the competition at 11:40 p.m. EDT last night. He was hit in the head in a collision with his guide boat.

Teen-Ager Fails
After floating a while in the darkness, Lumsdon decided he couldn't continue. Teen-aged Muriel Ferguson of Toronto struggled bravely until 2:25 a.m.

The other approved swimmers who failed included Steve Wozniak, 41, Buffalo, N. Y., who was pulled out suffering from cramps after going 1 1/2 miles, and Greta Anderson, 28, Dawney, Calif., who quit three hours after Wozniak.

The five "wildcaters" were refused entry into the race by the official committee for various reasons.

The five, however, decided to go on their own and they all started within a half hour of the official starters.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Curt Roberts is a little guy. Stands 5-8. Weighs 165. He's a second baseman who doesn't look like a power hitter. And he isn't — ordinarily.

But last night he became only the fifth player in International League history to sock four home runs in one game. And he did it "wildcaters," unauthorized entries, in the $27,000 32-mile swim marathon.

Since coming to the Jets in the Kansas City-Pittsburgh deal last season, Spook Jacobs to the Pirates on June 22, Roberts had hit only four home runs in 69 games. In five previous seasons in organized ball, he had hit only 29, not even averaging six a season.

Littlestown's team of the South Penn Baseball League will meet Taneytown of the Pen-Mar League Thursday evening at 7:15 o'clock on Memorial Field, Littlestown. A return game will be played Sunday at 2 p.m. at Taneytown.

13 Lettermen Among 50 Grid Candidates Opening Bullets Pre-Season Drills Saturday

Gettysburg College will begin fall football drills Saturday, according to an announcement by Head Coach John Yovicsin. Yovicsin will be starting his fifth season at the Bullet helm with an enviable record of 25 victories and only nine losses.

A total of 50 candidates, 13 of them lettermen, will be battling for varsity berths, with the Bullets holding two-a-day sessions for the first two weeks of practice. Included in the pre-season workouts will be a full-dress scrimmage with George Washington University on Saturday, September 15, at Gettysburg.

Yovicsin's biggest problems before the season opens on September 22 at Lehigh, will be the development of a quarterback to replace Frank Gagliardi, the school's all-time total offense leader, and a center to succeed Little All-American Sheldon Yings. Tackle also presents a problem, with only one letterman, junior burg, and Don Harman, Lancaster, centers Dave Graybill, York and Bill Morrow, Somers Point, N. J.; quarterbacks Dave Hetrick, Harrisburg, and Chike Heverly, Aldan, and halfbacks Bob Lebo, Botling Springs; Don Hailey, Camden, N. J. and Dave Lichtenfeld, Upper Darby, Lebo, a letter-winner last season as a reserve fullback, has been converted to the halfback spot and is a likely starter.

Several outstanding sophomores could crack the 1956 starting line-up, especially in certain line positions. Martin Hoffner, a 6-2, 205-pounder from Philadelphia, will be a leading candidate for a tackle job as will six-foot, 200-pound John Yohn, Palmyra, Pa. Six-foot, 195-California, Allentown; quarterback, pound Arloe Olsen, Claymont, Del.; Neil Hickoff, Duncannon, and halfback Earl Yost, former Williamsport Stravolo, Chambersburg, looks like a good bet to see considerable action at quarterback. George Greiner, Neffsville, Pa., and Jim Flood, Abington, Pa., are standout sophomore halfbacks.

Following the opener at Lehigh, the Bullets tackle Bucknell, Albright, Western Maryland, Muhlenberg, Lafayette, Scranton, Temple and Franklin and Marshall. The Orange and Blue won six and lost two last season.

Eastern League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Reading Indians and the Schenectady Blue Jays have completed their series in the 1956 Eastern League season but a continuance of the present pace will mean a playoff between the two for the pennant.

The two clubs are deadlocked in first place in the standings with 72-51 records. The only advantage the Indians have over the Jays is the latter's 10th inning tie with Williamsport hanging.

When the Grays and the Jays resume play in this 2-2, uncompleted contest, the Grays will return men to first and second base with no outs in the last half of the 10th.

Reading maintained its front-runner status with a 9-4 victory over Binghamton last night on the losers' diamond while Schenectady was busy scoring a 4-2 home-field triumph over Johnstown.

Albany moved into fifth place in the race with a doubleheader victory over Williamsport, 1-0, and 5-3. Syracuse, too, took a doubleheader, whipping fourth-place Allentown, 4-1, and 11-5.

Roy Campanella, Brooklyn's big catcher who wins the most valuable-player award every other season and then slumps in between, is following the same old script again. But with one ad lib from his bat, the Dodgers are surer than ever they'll retain the National League pennant.

Campy, at 35, the highest paid Dodger ever, won the NL's MVP award in 1951, '53 and '55. But he was a "bust" in '50, '52 and '54. And at the moment, true to the "even-year-jinx," he's wobbling along with a .220 bat average with a scrawny 57 runs batted in.

Things have been so bad for the big guy this season, Milwaukee decided to walk Jackie Robinson — loading the bases with two out — to get to Campy with the score tied 3-3 in the eighth inning yesterday. The Braves were speculating in percentages. Campy hadn't hit in his last 11 at bats.

Bats In Three Runs

He now has one hit in his last 12 at bats — a lined single that scored three runs and lifted the Dodgers into a 6-3 victory and whittled the Braves' first-place edge to two games more.

It was the only game scheduled in the NL, leaving the Brooks two full games ahead of third place Cincinnati.

In the only American League game scheduled, Cleveland bopped Washington 5-2 as Bob Lemon hung up his 188th lifetime victory.

Campanella's single salvaged a split in the two-game set for the second place Dodgers and gave them a victory in their last game of the season in Milwaukee for a 4-7 record at County Stadium. It was there that the Dodgers had nailed the 1953 and 1955 pennants with victories on their last visit of the season.

"At Home" Clashes

This one carried no such guarantee. But after coming back from a 3-0 deficit, the Brooks are sure they've got the flag in the sack. The Braves are still the team to beat, but now just one game back in the "lost" column the Brooklynians feel they can do it — helped along by an "at home" schedule to end the season. They figured they needed "only six or seven" victories on their current 11-game finale in the West this season and now they've won five of the first seven, with only four games left at Chicago against the last place Cubs.

Joe Adcock's 33rd home run, and his 11th against Brooklyn, and Bobby Thomson's 18th built the 3-0 Milwaukee lead against 20-game winner Don Newcombe, who has finished only one of his last four pitching starts, left for a pinch-hitter because of a tummy ache in the sixth when Duke Snider hit his 35th homer, a two-run shot, off Gene Conley to start the Brook revival.

Tied In Seventh

Robinson's double and a single by Sandy Amoros tied it in the seventh. Then came the eighth and Conley's fifth straight losing start against the champs since May 12, 1955. Don Bessent's one-hit relief over the last four frames brought the young right-hander his first 1956 victory.

It was Conley's hesitancy on Carl Furillo's chopper in the eighth that may have been responsible for his eighth defeat in 15 decisions. With runners on third and first, Conley seemed to be considering a doubleplay after fielding Furillo's bouncer, but instead retired Junior Gilliam in a rundown between third and home. Then came the pass to Robbie—who looked like the Jackie of old scoring from first on Campy's single when the outfield throw went to second.

Clouts Two Homers

Chico Carrasquel drove in three runs with two homers for the Tribe and scored another after doubling. Rocky Colavito also homered, his 17th, for the second place Indians, once more within

5 THWARTED IN LAKE ONTARIO'S ANNUAL SWIM

TORONTO (AP) — Lake Ontario's icy cold water and strong currents today beat back the challenge of 10 regular competitors and five "wildcatters," unauthorized entries, in the $27,000 32-mile swim marathon.

Tom Park, a 32-year-old Canadian-born husky from Marineland, Calif., was the last regular to yield to the lake. He was pulled into his pilot boat at 3:52 a.m. EDT after covering about 18 miles in just under 10 hours. The starting point was Niagara-On-The-Lake, Ont.

Park and Cliff Lumsdon from Toronto, had been expected to battle all the way for the chief share of the prize money. Lumsdon, a five-time winner of the Canadian National Exhibition's Lake Ontario swim was literally knocked out of the competition at 11:40 p.m. EDT last night. He was hit in the head in a collision with his guide boat.

Teen-Ager Fails

After floating a while in the darkness, Lumsdon decided he couldn't continue. Teen-aged Muriel Ferguson of Toronto struggled bravely until 2:25 a.m.

The other approved swimmers who failed included Steve Wozniak, 41, Buffalo, N.Y., who was pulled out suffering from cramps after going 1½ miles, and Greta Anderson, 28, Dawney, Calif., who quit three hours after Wozniak.

The five "wildcatters" were refused entry into the race by the official committee for various reasons.

The five, however, decided to go on their own and they all started within a half hour of the official start.

Clouts 4 Homers In 7-Inning Game

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Curt Roberts is a little guy. Stands 5-8. Weighs 165. He's a second baseman who doesn't look like a power hitter. And he isn't — ordinarily.

But last night he became only the fifth player in International League history to sock four home runs in one game. And he did it in seven innings, driving in six runs as his Columbus Jets defeated Havana 10-7 in the first game of a doubleheader.

Since coming to the Jets in the Kansas City-Pittsburgh deal that sent shortstop Spook Jacobs to the Pirates on June 22, Roberts had hit only four home runs in 69 games. In five previous seasons in organized ball, he had hit only 29, not even averaging six a season.

Littlestown's team of the South Penn Baseball League will meet Taneytown of the Pen-Mar League Thursday evening at 7:15 o'clock on Memorial Field, Littlestown. A return game will be played Sunday at 2 p.m. at Taneytown.

13 Lettermen Among 50 Grid Candidates Opening Bullets Pre-Season Drills Saturday

Gettysburg College will begin fall football drills Saturday, according to an announcement by Head Coach John Yovicsin. Yovicsin will be starting his fifth season at the Bullets with an enviable record of 25 victories and only nine losses.

Sophs Dominate

This year's will be a sophomore-dominated squad, with 25 on the roster, and Yovicsin is counting on several service-returnees to lend some experience. Included in the players recently discharged from military service are tackle Gino Calcagni, Allentown; quarterback Neil Hickoff, Duncannon; and half-back Earl Yost, former Williamsport High star, and now a resident of Shippensburg.

Returning lettermen, in addition to Kempston, will include starting ends Bill Ward, Libertytown, Md., and Art Hendley, Baltimore; first-string guard Jerry Harrell, Merrick, N. Y.; and 1955 rushing leader, full-back Frank Capitani, Hershey. Other veterans reporting on September 1 will be end Larry Davies, Norrisburg, and now a resident of Shippensburg; guards Joe Robinski, Harrisburg, and Don Harman, Lancaster; centers Dave Graybill, York, and Bill Morrow, Somers Point, N. J.; quarterbacks Dave Hetrick, Harrisburg, and Chike Heverly, Aldan; and halfbacks Bob Lebo, Bolling Springs; Don Hailey, Camden, N. J., and Dave Lichtenfeld, Upper Darby. Lebo, a letter-winner last season as a reserve fullback, has been converted to the halfback spot and is a likely starter.

Several outstanding sophomores could crack the 1956 starting lineup, especially in certain line positions. Martin Hoffman, a 6-2, 205-pounder from Philadelphia, will be a leading candidate for a tackle job as will six-foot, 200-pound John Yohn, Palmyra, Pa. Six-foot, 195-pound Arloe Olsen, Claymont, Del., could win the center job while Dick Stravolo, Chambersburg, looks like a good bet to see considerable action at quarterback. George Greiner, Neffsville, Pa., and Jim Flood, Abington, Pa., are standout sophomore halfbacks.

Following the opener at Lehigh, the Bullets tackle Bucknell, Albright, Western Maryland, Muhlenberg, Lafayette, Scranton, Temple and Franklin and Marshall. The Orange and Blue won six and lost two last season.

Eastern League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Reading Indians and the Schenectady Blue Jays have completed their series in the 1956 Eastern League season but a continuance of the present pace will mean a playoff between the two for the pennant.

The two clubs are ghdlocked in first place in the standings with 72-51 records. The only advantage the Indians have over the Jays is the latter's 10th inning tie with Williamsport hanging.

When the Grays and the Jays resume play in this 2-2, uncompleted contest, the Grays will return men to first and second base with no outs in the last half of the 10th.

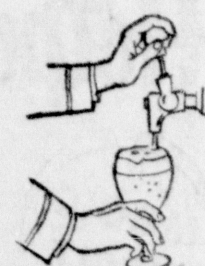

Reading maintained its front-runner status with a 9-4 victory over Binghamton last night on the losers' diamond while Schenectady was busy scoring a 4-2 home-field triumph over Johnstown.

Albany moved into fifth place in the race with a doubleheader victory over Williamsport, 1-0, and Franklin and Marshall. The Orange and Blue won six and lost two last season.

BLACK MOODS

Are you given to moods, often the very black ones, at times? Recently the entire sky all about me became suddenly black, almost all light shut out. It looked like the approach of a big storm. But somehow, and as surprising as they came, those clouds all left and the sun came out as though to give a promise and the hope for a Sunshine mood.

Nature is forever reproducing itself in us. We have these dark, black moods, but mostly they are of short duration and can be made meaningless. These black moods, however, are not very pleasant for us who have them, or for those who face them with us. In all nature there are moods of every sort. The forest, the sea, the mountains and valleys have them. The very black ones are rare and of short duration.

Nature does not cling to one mood for long. We should note that and follow her example.

And the good and inspiring moods far outweigh the unpleasant and unhappy ones. I have watched for hours the moods of the sea. They are very pronounced. Winslow Homer painted these moods in all their glory. They will always live as great masterpieces. Waugh also did great paintings of the sea in its many moods, and the late W. R. MacAskill preserved them in his matchless photographs of the sea.

You can't help but feel there are many moods in the floating and changing of the clouds of the sky on a summer's day. An advertiser of a popular product has used the phrase "Floating on a cloud." What a multitude of moods there are on a sunny-cloudy day! Changing every moment. Each time a picture of beauty. It is no wonder great artists have taken to the interpretations of these clouds. Very few, however, have anything to do with the black moods. The others mean most to us.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Friendliness of Birds."

BODY AND SOUL

Body and Soul I fancied were talking
As under the stars one clear night they went walking.

"I," said the Body, "am what men admire.
Strength for their tasks is the thing they desire.

I win their battles; 'tis I who am foremost.
I am the one that all mortals admire most."

"Body," said Soul, "you are loved by all mortals.
You sit at their tables and pass through their portals.

You are the house and the visible being,
You are the thing which they think they are seeing.

But I am the spirit, I make you or break you —
Lost is your pride if I ever forsake you.

"Body," said Soul, "you are merely the dwelling.
I am the kernel and you are the shell.

As a house that is empty men pass by, frightened,
So you would be were your eyes not kept lighted.

I am the essence of all men call your way,
The lamp at your window, the smile at your doorway.

"Tis true that men cherish you; true they admire you,
True that in broadcloth and silk they attire you.

But when age breaks you, you cannot be mended;
Back to the dust you return when life's ended.

Body, though strong you are, brilliant and clever,
Death shall destroy you, but I live forever."

BENSON WANTS

FARMERS TAKEN

OFF SALE BLOCK

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Benson contends the "serious" problems of the farmer can be solved only by sound thinking and sound action and not by placing them "on the political auction block."

He told about 5,000 persons at the annual Poultry Festival of the Pennsylvania State Poultry Federation.

"At the very heart of the agricultural issue is whether or farms are to continue to be operated by free men" or under more government subsidy.

"American agriculture is neither Republican nor Democrat," he said Sunday night. "Farm people cannot, and must not, be thought of as a group who may be put on the political auction block. Their problems cannot be solved that way."

The secretary's speech highlighted the festival which was held in conjunction with the fourth annual Pennsylvania Dutch Days at Hershey Park which closed Sunday with concerts by Pennsylvania Dutch bands.

Name Poultry Queen

Miss Elizabeth Erb, 17, of Mt. Zion, Lebanon County, was crowned Pennsylvania Poultry Queen for 1956-57 by Mrs. Benson. The blue-eyed red-haired beauty succeeds Miss Lorraine Eschelman, Lebanon. Runner-up in the contest was Karen Marie Trout, 17, High Rock, York County.

Mrs. Benson also crowned Mrs. Edna Sands, Tunkhannock, Pa., as grand champion of the state chicken cooking contest. Runner-up in the senior division was Miss Nancy Marsteller, 20, Stewartstown, York County.

First in the junior division was 14-year-old Elwood Boehler Jr., Lancaster, the only boy in the competition. Miss Rayola Miller, 18, Lebanon, R. D., was second.

NIXON IS READY

FOR BIG DRIVE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Nixon came back Monday from the bedside of his seriously ill father and prepared to plunge into his campaign for re-election.

After an overnight flight from California, Nixon arrived here with his wife and their two daughters, Patricia, 10, and Julie, 8.

He said he would rest this morning and go to his office this afternoon to confer with officials of the Republican National Committee on campaign plans.

Nixon said on leaving Los Angeles last night that his father, Frank A. Nixon, 71, ill in Whittier, Calif., "was in good spirits although he was upset to see us go because he's especially fond of the two girls."

The vice president said he would return to California immediately if his father should take a turn for the worse. In any event, Nixon said, he expects to return within two weeks.

High Court Upholds

Poor Home Reduction

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Pennsylvania Supreme Court has upheld a Carbon County Court order directing the state to reduce the number of occupants of the poor home in Laurytown by 30 to 40.

The order was issued by Carbon County Judge James C. McCready, and was opposed by officials of Luzerne, Carbon and Columbia counties. The home has residents of all three counties.

The court had been asked by Carbon County Dist. Atty. Carl A. Niehoff to quash a petition for a writ of prohibition against Judge McCready's order. The high court rejected Niehoff's request and then upheld the order. The commissioners of the three counties had sought the writ of prohibition.

The high court decision was made in a per curiam order last Thursday but was not docketed until yesterday.

DANIEL FACING

VOTE CHALLENGE

DALLAS (AP)—U. S. Sen. Price Daniel, who likes quiet and peace and can't seem to find them, was in one of the biggest brawls in Texas political history today.

This calm, natural man held a razor-sharp lead over Austin attorney Ralph Yarborough for the Democratic nomination as Texas governor — equal to election in Texas.

Prospects were that he would be fighting for his political life in many of Texas 254 counties where contests or challenges of a handful of ballots in each might melt his lead away.

Yarborough workers have indicated they plan to challenge all questionable ballots. A change of one per cent of the 1,400,000 ballots in the Austin attorney's favor would defeat Daniel easily.

Daniel, who is 46, once said he'd rather be governor of Texas than President. He will resign his Senate seat if he wins the Democratic nomination and the general election Nov. 6. At any rate, he has said, he does not plan to be a candidate to succeed himself in the Senate.

PRESIDENT ENDS VACATION; WILL MAP CAMPAIGN

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP)—President Eisenhower reported in good condition by his doctor, ends a West Coast vacation today and flies back to Washington to map second term campaign strategy and resume government business conferences.

The President and Mrs. Eisenhower are scheduled to take off from the Monterey Naval Air Station about 9 a. m., PDT, on a nine-hour nonstop flight to the capital.

Relaying word from Eisenhower's physician, Maj. Gen. Howard S. Snyder, White House press secretary James C. Hagerty told newsmen the President's stay at the Cypress Point Club in this resort area has done him a great deal of good.

"The doctor says the President is feeling fine and is in good condition," Hagerty said.

To List Plans

Eisenhower undoubtedly will get together with party leaders in the next few days to talk over campaign plans. The leaders will include Vice President Nixon, who also was nominated for a second term at San Francisco, and Leonard W. Hall, chairman of the Republican National Committee.

Hall said several weeks ago the GOP campaign will get started about Sept. 15 and that the President will make five or six nationwide television and radio addresses, some outside of Washington, with barnstorming and "whistle stop" talks ruled out.

At a San Francisco news conference, Eisenhower said he had no plans beyond those Hall had announced. But GOP congressional candidates reported they got the impression the President's campaign will be on a somewhat broader basis.

One of Eisenhower's first callers when he gets back to his White House desk tomorrow morning will be Secretary of State Dulles with a full report on London talks on the Suez Canal situation.

FRUEHAUF FACES DUAL CHARGES

WASHINGTON (AP)—The world's largest maker of truck-trailers faced dual charges Monday by buying up its competition and tending to monopolize business in the field.

The Federal Trade Commission ordered a hearing in Detroit Oct. 30 on the charges it filed against the Fruehauf Trailer Co.

A spokesman for the firm in Detroit said the company is preparing a reply. He declined to comment immediately on the charges.

Anti-Merger Law
The FTC accused Fruehauf of violating the anti-merger law by acquiring five competitors or suppliers in the past nine years.

Fruehauf also was charged with wielding a "potential monopoly power to frustrate the growth or survival of its small competitors" by offering customers special credit deals which rival manufacturers could not match.

Declaring Fruehauf has violated the Clayton Anti-Trust Act, the FTC said the company's own share of a market in which there are about 100 manufacturers is 37 per cent and that with the acquired companies it accounts for more than 48 per cent.

Among the companies whose acquisition was challenged was the Strick Plastic Corp., Parkside, Pa., and Strick Corp., Philadelphia, acquired within the last year, the FTC said.

PRESIDENT ENDS VACATION; WILL MAP CAMPAIGN

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
FEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP)—President Eisenhower reported in good condition by his doctor, ends a West Coast vacation today and flies back to Washington to map second term campaign strategy and resume government business conferences.

The President and Mrs. Eisenhower are scheduled to take off from the Monterey Naval Air Station about 9 a.m., PDT, on a nine-hour nonstop flight to the capital.

Relaying word from Eisenhower's physician, Maj. Gen. Howard M. Snyder, White House press secretary James C. Hagerty told newsmen the President's stay at the Cypress Point Club in this resort area has done him a great deal of good.

"The doctor says the President is feeling fine and is in good condition," Hagerty said.

To List Plans

Eisenhower undoubtedly will get together with party leaders in the next few days to talk over campaign plans. The leaders will include Vice President Nixon, who also was nominated for a second term at San Francisco, and Leonard W. Hall, chairman of the Republican National Committee.

Hall said several weeks ago the GOP campaign will get started about Sept. 15 and that the President will make five or six nationwide television and radio addresses, some outside of Washington, with barnstorming and "whistle stop" talks ruled out.

At a San Francisco news conference, Eisenhower said he had no plans beyond those Hall had announced. But GOP congressional candidates reported they got the impression the President's campaign will be on a somewhat broader basis.

One of Eisenhower's first calls when he gets back to his White House desk tomorrow morning will be Secretary of State Dulles with a full report on London talks on the Suez Canal situation.

FRUEHAUF FACES DUAL CHARGES

WASHINGTON (AP)—The world's largest maker of truck-trailers faced dual charges Monday to buying up its competition and tending to monopolize business in the field.

The Federal Trade Commission ordered a hearing in Detroit Oct. 30 on the charges it filed against the Fruehauf Trailer Co.

A spokesman for the firm in Detroit said the company is preparing a reply. He declined to comment immediately on the charges.

Anti-Merger Law
The FTC accused Fruehauf of violating the anti-merger law by acquiring five competitors or suppliers in the past nine years.

Fruehauf also was charged with wielding a "potential monopoly power to frustrate the growth or survival of its small competitors" by offering customers special credit deals which rival manufacturers could not match.

Declaring Fruehauf has violated the Clayton Anti-Trust Act, the FTC said the company's own share of a market in which there are about 100 manufacturers is 37 per cent and that with the acquired companies it accounts for more than 48 per cent.

Among the companies whose acquisition was challenged was the Strick Plastic Corp., Parkersburg, Pa., and Strick Corp., Philadelphia, acquired within the last year, the FTC said.

PRICE HOLDS SMALL LEAD IN TEXAS VOTING

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—U.S. Sen. Price Daniel led by a hair's breadth on Monday and Ralph Yarborough's backers promised a fight for every ballot in tomorrow's official canvass of Saturday's Texas Democratic gubernatorial primary election.

The latest tabulation gave Daniel 697,732 votes and Yarborough 695,209, or a lead of 2,523. That was a lead of .08 of one per cent of the votes reported to the Texas Election Bureau, unofficial vote-counting agency set up by news media.

Daniel's lead was 5,293 at noon yesterday, but it was whittled by corrections, most of which favored Yarborough, and by a few more complete returns from counties Yarborough carried.

State Canvass September 10. The official state canvass—based on the county canvasses—will be held at Fort Worth Sept. 10.

In the first primary July 28, Daniel led by about 165,000 votes,

Lansdowne Woman Killed In Crash

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A 65-year-old suburban Lansdowne woman was killed Sunday night in a two-car collision at a Springfield Twp. intersection in Delaware County. Police said the victim, Miss Marian Grubb, was a passenger in an automobile driven by her brother, Oliver, 63, which struck a vehicle operated by George Ganzer of Drexel Hill. She was pronounced dead on arrival at Fitzgerald Mercy Hospital in Darby.

Ganzer's wife, Rita; her mother, Mrs. Adessia Leonida, 76, and the dead woman's brother also were taken to the hospital.

but failed to gain a majority. In Saturday's runoff, Yarborough gained support from many counties which went to Daniel in July. He also found a great deal of support in counties which supported the third place man in the first primary, former U.S. Sen. and Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel.

The Democratic nomination usually is equivalent to election in Texas.

Yarborough claimed to be the "only true Democrat" in the race. He pointed to Daniel's bolt to the GOP presidential ticket in 1952, when Texas went Republican.

REDS DAMAGE CHINESE PLANE

HONG KONG (AP)—The Peiping radio said Chinese antiaircraft gunners damaged a Chinese Nationalist F84 fighter Monday on the mainland opposite Formosa.

The plane was reported to be one of four "Chiang Kai-shek" fighters sighted over the Pinghai district of Fukien province.

Pinghai juts out into the sea about 100 miles west of Formosa, bastion of the nationalist generalissimo.

Nationalist planes often fly over Fukien, dropping propaganda leaflets in an attempt to incite residents against Red rule.

The Peiping radio last Thursday said Red China's air force damaged a "Chiang Kai-shek" plane southeast of Shanghai. This is the area where a U. S. Navy patrol plane with 16 aboard was downed after radioing it was under fire.

The Nationalist air force reported none of its planes was in the area where the Navy PAM Mercator disappeared. American search craft have found wreckage and the body of one crewman.

PRICE HOLDS
SMALL LEAD IN TEXAS VOTING

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—U.S. Sen. Price Daniel led by a hair's breadth on Monday and Ralph Yarborough's backers promised a fight for every ballot in tomorrow's official canvass of Saturday's Texas Democratic gubernatorial primary election.

The latest tabulation gave Daniel 597,732 votes and Yarborough 595,205, or a lead of 2,527. That was a lead reported to the Texas Election Bureau, unofficial vote-counting agency set up by news media.

Daniel's lead was 5,293 at noon yesterday, but it was whittled by corrections, most of which favored Yarborough, and by a few more complete returns from counties Yarborough carried.

State Canvass September 10

The official state canvass—based on the county canvasses—will be held at Fort Worth Sept. 10.

In the first primary July 28, Daniel led by about 165,000 votes.

Lansdowne Woman
Killed In Crash

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A 65-year-old suburban Lansdowne woman was killed Sunday night in a two-car collision at a Springfield Twp. intersection in Delaware County.

Police said the victim, Miss Marian Grubb, was a passenger in an automobile driven by her brother, Oliver, 63, which struck a vehicle operated by George Ganzer of Drexel Hill. She was pronounced dead on arrival at Fitzgerald Mercy Hospital in Darby.

Ganzer's wife, Rita, her mother, Mrs. Adessas Leoneia, 76, and the dead woman's brother also were taken to the hospital.

but failed to gain a majority. In Saturday's runoff, Yarborough gained support from many counties which went to Daniel in July. He also found a great deal of support in counties which supported the third place man in the first primary, former U.S. Sen. and Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel.

The Democratic nomination usually is equivalent to election in Texas.

Yarborough claimed to be the "only true Democrat" in the race. He pointed to Daniel's bolt to the GOP presidential ticket in 1952, when Texas went Republican.

REDS DAMAGE
CHINESE PLANE

HONG KONG (AP)—The Peiping radio said Chinese anti-aircraft gunners damaged a Chinese Nationalist P4M fighter Monday on the mainland opposite Formosa.

The plane was reported to be one of four "Chiang Kai-shek" fighters sighted over the Pinghai district of Fukien province.

Pinghai juts out into the sea about 100 miles west of Formosa, bastion of the nationalist generalissimo.

Nationalist planes often fly over Fukien, dropping propaganda leaflets in an attempt to incite residents against Red rule.

The Peiping radio last Thursday said Red China's air force damaged a "Chiang Kai-shek" plane southeast of Shanghai. This is the area where a U. S. Navy patrol plane with 16 aboard was downed after radioing it was under fire.

The Nationalist air force reported none of its planes was in the area where the Navy P4M Mercator disappeared. American search craft have found wreckage and the body of one crewman.

AAA ROAD TESTS SHOW:

Blue Sunoco averages 7.67 more miles per dollar than 12 other premiums

On $3.00 worth of Blue Sunoco, test cars were driven out of town till they ran dry. They couldn't get back on $3.00 worth of any of the other premium gasolines tested. They never got home! Blue Sunoco averaged 23.0 miles farther!

These tests were conducted by the American Automobile Association in 6 cities under normal city-country driving conditions—using typical drivers in late model high-compression cars whose manufacturers recommend a premium gasoline.

Results of tests confirm, once again, the fact that Blue Sunoco is America's greatest gasoline value. Why not take advantage of it—get more miles for your gasoline dollar? Stop in at your neighborhood Sunoco dealer's today, and try a tankful of Blue Sunoco.

It's the gasoline that meets today's new higher premium octane standards and sells at regular gas price.
